

50

Of
“LADY ROSE’S DAUGHTER.”

A. P. Weeks
with the affectionate
Christmas greeting
of 1908 -
from Caroline H. Dall.

Of
“LADY ROSE’S DAUGHTER.”

A Defense and an Analysis.

By

CAROLINE HEALEY DALL.

“Marry, this, well carried, shall on her behalf Change slander to remorse.”

— Much Ado about Nothing.

“Never any
With so full soul, but some defect in her
Did quarrel with the noblest grace she owned.”

— The Tempest.

PRIVATELY PRINTED.
THOMAS TODD, BOSTON.
1903.

NOTE.

It will be seen that, in order to preserve the exact meaning of the author, I have used intentionally her own words whenever condensation was not needed.

C. H. D.