OFFICE HONORARY PRESIDENT—17 MADISON ST., ROCHESTER, N. Y., Dec. 23, 1903

Miss Paine,

Groveland, Mass.

Dear Madam:--

I despatched last night a set of the Woman's Suffrage History and some other documents, The report of the International Council of 1888, and the report of the National council of 1891, and the record of the constitutional convention campaign in this State of 1894, from all of which you will see that some women have been hard at work trying to get the ballot in the hands of all. Please inform me if you received this package. It was prepaid and was sent by order of Mrs. Samantha Vail Lapham.

Very sincerely yours,

Susan B. Anthony
