Dear Friend:-

I am receiving so many thousands of requests for my pamphlet on "Family Limitation" that it has become impossible for me to continue to furnish it gratis. I have reached the limit of my resources. It is now up to the people interested to help me carry on this urgently needed work.

I have set no price on this pamphlet, as I refuse to commercialize a crying need of humanity, but if you wish to contribute what you can to the cause, I will be glad to send you one or more copies as you may desire. The balance of your contribution will help me extend this work to those who cannot afford to pay but who are in desperate need of relief.

If you want to help in this work of distribution, I will gladly send you a supply of pamphlets at what they cost me.

A Yiddish edition is now ready and German, Italian and Polish translations are being prepared.

If possible, remit by check, postal or express money order, as my mail is being tampered with.

Fraternally,

MARGARET SANGER

N. B. Please enclose self-addressed envelope.
