

THE
NIGHTINGALE
TRAINING SCHOOL
1860—1996

Roy Wake

THE
NIGHTINGALE
TRAINING SCHOOL
1860-1996

Roy Wake

HAGGERSTON PRESS

Florence Nightingale
in 1856, the only
trative disaster.
honour her achie
until 1860 that t
nurses carrying h
new School came
pital and traces
the old Hospital
accommodation
final establishme
the Thames in 18

Though Miss
mittent, and she
her death in 19
created a legend
to examine the
solidation of the matronship of M
between 1913 and
Nightingale Badg
and the most trea
the school.

The pride of
with its rigour, di
them a strong se
in School and Ho
and, during the
buildings at St
Surrey and Hamp
who then achieved
much to raise nu
1948 the story bec
was increasingly c
in organisation
Health Service, u
taken that the scl
This caused much
For the middle a
made of the perso
revealed in their a

The last chap
tions and partner
the School from
mation of a new
whose organisati
postscript.

In 1928 the Nig
hope that all Ni
present officers
memorate the l

© The Nightingale Fellowship 1998

First published 1998
by Haggerston Press,
38 Kensington Place, London W8 Unauthorised duplication contravenes applicable legislation

Printed and bound in Great Britain
by T. J. International, Padstow

ISBN 1 869812 17 4

All orders for this book to:

The Nightingale Fellowship
Gassiot House
2 Lambeth Palace Road
London SE1 7EW

This history is dedicated to the memory of a special Nightingale - an example to us all

Miss Rosamond A Hone OBE
1913-1995

*Principal Tutor
of The Nightingale Training School 1955-1972*

