

Parallax

Nancy Cunard

Dear Janet.

From many months
and days moments will remain — perhaps in particular these, at Le Lavandon.

June - 1925.

Nancy Cunard.

PARALLAX

Nancy Cunard

"Many things are known as some are seen, that is by Parallax, or at some distance from their true and proper being."

Sir Thomas Browne.

Printed and published by Leonard and Virginia Woolf
at The Hogarth Press 52 Tavistock Square London 1925

any month
ments will
haps in particular
vendon.

Canard.

I desire here to pay my thanks, and state my admiration for the two drawings by Eugene McDowd that form the covers of this volume.

N. C.

stone back of him,
inds, and stars encompassed,
ed, made clear—
e tasting of hearts,
ce.

e's philosophy
nt tomorrows

ltimate grace

score—
fecting,

his feet

iese

6986